Description

Explore the vibrant history of Crete on this guided private premium day tour from Chania to Heraklion. Uncover the secrets of the Minoan civilization as you visit the iconic Palace of Knossos and delve into the treasures of the Archaeological Museum. The tour offers an immersive experience through ancient ruins, historical narratives, and traditional Greek hospitality.

Departure and Route: Embark on a journey departing from Chania and tracing the scenic north coast of Crete. Pass by the cities of Rethymnon and Heraklion before reaching the inland destination of the Palace of Knossos. This legendary archaeological site, the epicenter of the Minoan civilization, awaits exploration.

Palace of Knossos, Cradle of Minoan Civilization: Join a certified guide for an optional 2-hour tour unraveling the captivating stories of the Minoan period. Discover the mysteries of the Minotaur and Ariadne within the ancient walls of the palace. Immerse yourself in the rich history and cultural significance of this remarkable site.

Archaeological Museum: A Treasure Trove: Continue the journey to the Archaeological Museum, a repository of over 5500 years of Cretan history. Explore the museum's extensive collection of Minoan antiquities. Gain insights into the island's archaeological heritage and its place in European culture.

Culinary Delights and Return Journey: Indulge in a traditional Greek tavern for a delightful lunch break, savoring local flavors. Follow the national road to Rethymnon, passing through the city, and then trace the coastal route back to Chania. As the day draws to a close, experience the warmth of Greek hospitality and professional service before being dropped off at your hotel. Please note lunch stop is optional and the cost is not included in the tour price.

This premium historic day tour offers an enthralling escape into the heart of Crete's history. From ancient ruins to museum treasures and culinary experiences, immerse yourself in the rich tapestry of the Minoan civilization while enjoying personalized and professional service throughout the journey.
